

I would not be in favor of any proposal that would lesssen the current Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. Since signing up with for this service, I have not received as many unsolicited telephone calls, which has saved me a considerable time. Previously, I would receive numerous calls each day to and now I receive less than one. Any action that would diminish the effectiveness of this law would therefore, lead to an increase in the number of calls I receive and a waste of my time.